Summer Concert Series to be Hosted by Restaurant

OMAHA -- On June 4, food and music lovers are invited to gather for the first night of a five week concert series in West Omaha.

The evening is a celebration of friends, food and beer and will serve as the official kickoff for the "Lazlo's on the Lawn," summer concert series. Participants will enjoy fresh BBQ while listening to tunes from local bands on the lawn at Lazlo's Brewery & Grill.

"It's an opportunity for us to give thanks to the community for supporting our restaurant by inviting them to a party we're throwing in our backyard," said Jeremy Schafer, general manager of Lazlo's, Inc.

Local bands like Taxi Driver, Losing Lincoln, ShurThing!, MoonJuice, Monica Eby Band and Oxygen will perform a variety of music genres such as oldies, jazz, classic and soft rock. "Lazlo's on the Lawn" will be held every Thursday evening, rain or shine, through July 2 when two bands will rock the stage to conclude the series.

Gates open at 6:00 P.M. with a $5 cover charge collected at the door. Children 12 and under, accompanied by an adult, enter free. Burgers, brats, chicken sandwiches, Emphyrean ales, margaritas and wine are just a few of the options available for purchase during the event. Blankets and lawn chairs are welcome; no outside food or beverages allowed.

Lazlo's Brewery & Grill is located 0.2 miles north of 192nd and West Center. Call 402-289-5840 for more information or visit www.lazlosbreweryandgrill.com.
